

TERESA ANNE HOLLADAY IS KNOWN AS 'TERRI' TO HER BOSOM FRIENDS

How The Mighty Have Fallen From The Social Scene !

Oh! How the mighty of the social set of the Hongkong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) of the People's Republic of China (PRC) have fallen!

First to fall from grace, some years ago, was Ms Deborah Anne Sims (), the former doyenne of the HKSAR social scene, with her once lithe body, gracing the glossies of the territory, holding aloft her newly born child as an advertisement to other Hongkong tai-tais that 'You, too, have the ability to have a body such as mine if you join my beauty salon-cum-gymnasium.'

From being the well-to-do wife of Mr Eddie Phillips, the driving force of Phillip Wain International, and living in a $HK200-million-plus mansion along the swank Bowen Road, Ms Deborah Anne Sims has all but vanished from the social scene as she spends her time in the Western District of Hongkong Island where she is trying to operate a shop, selling BOTOX treatments to ageing ladies.

Her Causeway Bay, expensive gymnasium/pampering shop for ladies, called, modestly, Body by Deborah International Health and Beauty Spa, had to close down, some years ago, leaving behind many millions of dollars of debts.

From a budding beauty, Deborah Anne Sims has sunk to the standard of what some people might describe her as a withering flower.

Or, to be more generous, it could be said that she is at the stage of demi-saison of life as she passes from one stage in the ageing process to the next.

The ravages of age ... as well as an awful temper and an inability to play the role of a loving wife to Mr Eddie Phillips were, clearly, her undoing in days of yore.

And, now, there is Ms Teresa Anne Holladay, known affectionately to her lovers and would-be suitors as, simply, Terri.

First, There Was Cecil Chao

Terri first came to the attention of Mr Cecil Chao Sze Tsung (), the Chairman of Cheuk Nang (Holdings) Ltd (), some years ago, at JJ's Bar in the Grand Hyatt Hotel in Wanchai.

Seated some distance from Cecil in this up-market disco and burning with passion to meet her, he sent her a bottle of Dom Perignon Champagne as an opening gesture.

It was enough to grease the wheels of that which followed, as history has recorded.

Terri, some months later, admitted to the Press of Hongkong that she was deeply in love with one of Hongkong's most-colourful, businessmen-cum-playboy, who, openly, admits to having sired a number of children without having to marry their biological mothers.

Having moved into the home of Cecil, Terri soon became pregnant and Roman, the son of Terri and Cecil, followed in the normal course of events.

It was, one could rightly say, a Roman Holiday for the lovers.

There followed ... CLICK TO ORDER FULL ARTICLE
