

THE TIDE ABIDES OR, TARRIETH FOR NO MAN, STAYS NO MAN, TIDE NOR TIME TARRIETH NO MAN

Has the free world gone completely bonkers?

It, certainly, seems so to this medium.

The President of The United States of America, Mr Barack Hussein Obama, has stated that the most-advanced nation of the world, today, in terms of the size of its economy, the largest on this planet, its military might, second to none on the planet, and with regard to its massive manufacturing ability, will not, in his words, put boots on the ground in order to fight the armed militia of The ISIL – The Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant.

An international coalition has banded with the US to bombard specific targets where the ISIL fighters are known to have been entrenched as well as ISIL fighters, known to be continuing to be operating in both Syria and Iraq.

Alas, the bombardments have been met with very limited success and are unlikely to meet with great success on the future.

For every ISIL fighter that is killed by the coalition's air strikes, international mercenaries have come forward and sworn allegiance to the Abu Bakr al-Baghdadi, also known as Abu Du'a, alternatively, Bakr Al-Baghdadi Al-Husseini Al-Qurash, and known to his supporters as Caliph Ibrahim.

For the most part, these mercenaries are as evil or as mad as Caliph Ibrahim and his motley band of cutthroats, rapists, discontents and purported zealots.

In the past fortnight, in Paris, France, Berlin, Germany, and in Verviers, Belgium, which is very close to the German border, police and army personnel were called upon to launch counter-terror operations in attempts to thwart attacks by home-grown Jihadists – most of whom were citizens or residents of these European countries.

The free world has watched with shock and disgust at that which ISIL has been doing to the thousands of innocent civilians in the places that it has captured.

Last Thursday, it was discovered by Belgian's counter-terrorist department of the police that Jihadists, recently returned from Syria, that they were planning to attack and kill any and all policemen in certain cities of the country.

A running gun battle in Verviers resulted in the killing of two of the Jihadists, both of whom were well armed, ready to do battle with the policemen.

Looking Back In History

One recalls the days, just prior to the outbreak of World War II, when that Austrian-born madman was trying to become the ruler of the world.

His name was Adolf Hitler, Chancellor of Germany for 12 years, from 1933 until 1945.

During his dictatorship of Germany, he engineered a coalition with Italy and Japan in an attempt to become the first world's first emperor.

When World War II ended on August 4, 1945, with the surrender of The Empire of Japan at Tokyo Bay, more than 70 million people lay dead, around the world, victims of the most-horrific war in the history of the world.

World War II started with Germany's invasion of Poland on September 1, 1939, about six years later, Germany's major cities had been utterly destroyed along with its once military might.

In Japan, some 129,000 Japanese civilians lay dead in Nagasaki and Hiroshima, following the dropping of two atom bombs on these cities by the US Air Force.

Many people, especially the elderly Jewish population of Israel, find it difficult to forget the horrors of World War II – because, among other things, Chancellor Adolf Hitler had determined, during his reign to attempt to eradicate the Jews from the face of the earth.

He succeeded to the extent of murdering some six million Jewish men, women and children, mostly in concentration camps where they were gassed to death.

At the outset of World War II, with Germany's unprovoked attack on Poland, only Great Britain and France declared war on Germany in accordance with the Accord of March 31, 1939, signed by the Governments of the United Kingdom and France, both countries, having pledged support for Poland in the event that its independence was threatened.

The US did not enter the war until December 7, 1941, following Japan, bombing Pearl Harbour at 7:48 am, leaving 2,403 US servicemen killed and another 1,178 US servicemen wounded, many of whom subsequently died from their wounds.

It is only too obvious that the world did not learn the lessons that led to the outbreak of World War II and of evil that was personified in the three demented players who were responsible for the deaths of tens of millions of people: The mad, Austrian, Chancellor of Germany; the mad Italian, Benito Amilcare Andrea Mussolini, Prime Minister from 1922 until 1943; and, the land-hungry, Japanese military 'machine', orchestrated by the duo of Vice Admiral Chuichi Nagumo of The Imperial Japanese Navy and Isoroku Yamamoto, Marshal Admiral, Commander-in-Chief of The Imperial Japanese Navy.

One thing is, also, very obvious: Man loves to kill; history has proved this.

Who Are Those ISIL Fighters?

It is very clear that ISIL, while it makes the claim to be comprised, completely, of zealots of Islam, is not following the tenets of the Q'ran.

When the Q'ran appears not to endorse the acts of barbarism, perpetrated by the fighters of ISIL, then, there appears a new interpretation of parts of this Holy book in order to permit ISIL's activities, such as causing innocent females to become their sex slaves.

Nowhere in the Q'ran does it condone rape, sexual perversion, the slaughter of innocents, including babies, causing prepubescent females to engage, forcibly, in sexual acts, in addition to attempts to eradicate of those peoples who are determined to have been infidels.

But, in the name of Allah, ISIL fighters hold slave auctions of Yazidi females who are the luckless inhabitants of villages, captured by ISIL fighters.

For those Yazidi males and females who try to escape from ISIL's invading forces, they are shot dead in what the Americans like to call a 'turkey shoot'.

A 15 year-old, Yazidi girl has gone on record, telling of her ordeal, having, first, been captured by ISIL militants at her home in the north of Iraq, made to become a sex slave, and, then, sold twice, first to a Palestinian man and, then, after shooting the Palestinian with the help of his Iraqi housekeeper, who presented her with a pistol, was resold, following her recapture by a troop of ISIL fighters, only to be auctioned off, once again, this time to a Saudi Arabian for $US1,000.

She managed to escape her captors and found her way to Turkey. Her two sisters are thought, still, to be in the hands of ISIL where they remain as sex slaves.

Similar stories of females, some as young as 10 years old, were raped repeatedly by ISIL commanders who, always, had the pick of Yazidi female prisoners and, if the captives female are not considered agreeable to the commanders' sexual perversions, they are often sold or given as presents to ISIL fighters.

But it is not just the so-called Jihadists who engage in rape and murder of female Yazidis because, of late, it has been proven that European mercenaries have joined the ranks of ISIL, after converting to Islam, having been promised female slaves to do their bidding – in and out of bed.

These American, European and Australian and New Zealand mercenaries make their way to Syria and Iraq and, following their pledging of allegiance to ISIL, they are given a female to be their sex slave along with weaponry to fight and, also, some money.

In the week of January 17, 2015, Islamic radicals, being members of ISIL, an offshoot of Al Qaeda, struck again, this time, not in the Middle East, but in the middle of France, in the Capital City of Paris.

At the end of three days of violence, on January 10, 17 innocent people lay dead.

Millions of French Moslems, French Christians, French Jews, and members of many other religious groups, living in France, marched down major French cities in a show of solidarity, promising that the Islamic radicals would not blunt their determination to live without fear.

For What Is The Free World Waiting?

As far as TARGET () can ascertain, World War III is not just around the corner – because it has, already, started.

ISIL is known to be in possession of billions of US dollars and is selling crude oil, daily, to whomsoever has ready cash.

In addition, it has captured tens of thousands of square miles of territory in the Middle East where it claims that it has established a caliphate, its leader, being Caliph Ibrahim.

It is known that ISIL wants to build an air force, having captured at least one fighter jet. Today, it is training pilots as to how to employ this weapon in an aerial war.

Left to ISIL's own devices, no doubt, this murderous bunch will find a method to obtain a nuclear arsenal, too.

Then, it will be too late.

When Adolf Hitler attacked Poland in 1939, The United States of America maintained that the war that followed, with the United Kingdom and France, sending in troops to fight the Nazi onslaught that had captured large swaths of Europe, was a European affair and not of great concern to the Administration of President Franklin Delano Roosevelt.

When Pearl Harbour was attacked, the US woke up to the real situation that had been thrust upon it – and Americans went to war against, Germany, Japan and Italy.

In today's world, to the horror of tens of millions of Americans, they were forced to witness the attack on September 11, 2001, by two hijacked, US passenger airliners, one belonging to United Airlines and one belonging to American Airlines.

The World Trade Center, New York City, was the target of the suicidal pilots of these two airplanes; The World Trade Centers were utterly destroyed.

The tally of these two suicide missions, carried out by operatives of the Islamic group of Al Qaeda, left not less than 3,000 people dead.

The attacks were the first time since the war of 1812 between the UK and the US, a war that lasted for the best part of 30 months, that the US had been subjected to an invasion on its home soil.

The question that the leaders of the free world must ponder, today, is, simply put: What will it take to make President Barack Hussein Obama realise the danger that the free world is facing and to make the determination to send in the US troops, preferably with the present coalition's armed forces, pledging allegiance to the cause of obliterating the Islamic radicals, as well as any and all of its followers, in order to destroy the evil that they are known to be?

These Islamic radicals are tearing apart large areas of the Middle East.

They will continue to expand their territory unless somebody stops them.

If Al Qaeda and ISIL and others of their ilk are successful in the Middle East, no doubt, they will not be satisfied with their lot and, as with Chancellor Adolf Hitler in the early 1940s, they will look to the West in order to become the rulers of the world.
