WHO IS MANIPULATING THE OPERATIONS OF THE STRINGS OF PUPPET BIDEN ?

Since moving into the White House, on or about January 20, 2021, President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior clearly has taken on a very different mien than that of the past, in the days that he was a Presidential Candidate in his attempts – and eventual success – to become the 47th President of The United States of America.

His physiognomical paradigm has changed little since taking up residence at Number 1600, Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, District of Columbia: He is the same, 79 year-old, squint-eyed politician, reminded daily how the hair on his head is fast becoming noticeably threadlike with the passing of each morning's view in the mirror of his bathroom.

His gait is considerably slower than it was, prior to January 20, 2021, but that is to be expected; and, it is well-accepted that age weighs heavier and heavier with the passing of every moon for both men and women, alike.

It is apparent that he does not appreciate, talking in public for too long a period of time on a particular subject because, inter alia, he is quite likely to have forgotten, at the beginning of his attempt to expound on a subject in his second sentence, that which he uttered in the preceding sentence.

This makes it exceedingly difficult for anybody, trying to listen to his utterances for any considerable length of time, to understand that which the leader of the most-powerful country of the world is trying to enumerate when his attempted pronouncements are longer than two sentences of 12 words per sentence.

Mental faculties of all Homo Sapiens do wane with the passing of the years; President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior is no exception to Nature's Rules.

I Want To Talk To You!

On Thursday, March 18, 2021 (Hongkong time), the President of The Russian Federation summoned Ambassador Anatoly Antonov, stationed in Washington, District of Columbia, to fly to Moscow in order, initially, to engage in a tête-à-tête with President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin.

The urgency of this ‘imperial’ summons for Ambassador Anatoly Antonov to fly to Moscow, immediately, was not lost on erudite and experienced politicians of the free countries of the world: What did it mean? What may one expect? Will relations between The Russian Federation and some members of the free world deteriorate, further?

The summons, for Ambassador Anatoly Antonov to return to Moscow, immediately, was the direct result of President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior’s unalloyed warning that President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin would ‘Pay the price’ for Russia’s alleged meddling in the November 2020 Presidential Elections of The United States of America.

President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior did not stop after issuing the ‘Pay the price’ warning to President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, but went much further by suggesting, openly and somewhat stentoriously, that President of The Russian Federation was, ‘a killer’.

That which President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior meant by describing President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin as a ‘killer’, this medium cannot fathom since it could have quite a number of connotations.

For instance, did President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior mean that President Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin was of the category of one or more of the following infamous killers:

1. Theodore Robert Bundy, an American serial killer who kidnapped, raped, and murdered numerous young women and girls nearly all between the ages of 16 years and 23 years, during the 1970s and, possibly, earlier. He confessed to 30 homicides, committed in seven States of The United States of America, between 1974 and 1978;
2. Jack the Ripper, an unidentified serial killer, active in the largely impoverished areas, in and around the Whitechapel District of London, England, in 1888. In both the criminal case files and contemporary journalistic accounts, Jack the Ripper was referred to as, ‘The Whitechapel Murderer’ and ‘The Leather Apron’;
3. Donald Henry Gaskins, who openly claimed to have killed between 80 and 90 people by torturing and mutilating them. He started killing in 1969, picking up hitchhikers on the coastal highways of the American South; and or,
4. Tsutomu Miyazaki, dubbed in Japan’s popular Press of his day, as ‘The Human Dracula’. Tsutomu Miyazaki amassed such a wide variety of names, due to his hideous acts. Some of the names were: ‘The Otaku Murderer’; ‘The Little Girl Murderer’; and, ‘Dracula Miyazaki’. The reason for these nomenclatures was his modus operandi, being that he abducted little girls, killed them, and then indulged in sexual activities with their corpses. On one occasion, he not only drank the victim's blood, but ate her hand as well. He also preserved body parts as trophies and sent postcards to the victims’ families, describing the murders.

Charming! Take your pick!

President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior was, at one time, a practising lawyer in The United States of America, and, as such, he would have been loath to label a person a killer ... unless he was cocksure of his ground in order to make such a determination.

That, of course, requires such a sagacious Member of the Bar to be in possession of a very retentive memory.

And it appears, insofar as President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior is concerned, that he is outwardly denoting a paucity of functioning brain cells, a physical phenomena that all mammals, as they age, are bound to suffer – and demonstrate, as does President Joseph Robinette Biden Junior, today.

It is of no fault of his own that he makes numerous errors in respect of pronouncing people's names, the geographic positions of many of the countries of the world, the ethnicity of the many diverse population groups of The United States of America, and forgets the number of zeroes in millions, billions, and trillions: He is just overtly exhibiting to the world, the results of that which takes place when one is forced to suffer from degenerative brain cells.

One would hope and pray, however, that he does not forget how to sign his name, accurately and consistently, on official Governmental documents in order for posterity to record.

And so the question, now, simply put, is:

‘Who is/are the puppeteer(s), controlling the operations of the strings of puppet Joseph Robinette Biden Junior, the elected President of the most-powerful country of the world, today?’
