

BYRON INTERNATIONAL'S CHIEF
ACCUSED OF ISSUING $HK1-MILLION RUBBER CHEQUE

There has been a terrible falling out in the Alain Guernier Camp, with one of Mr Guernier's partners, throwing down the gauntlet in what is, apparently, a show of extreme ire.

This is the latest episode in the litigation saga of Mr Alain Guernier and his Byron International Hotels Ltd, a saga which stretches over the past 4 years.

Mr Kenneth Keung Wah, in the latest attack on the Frenchmen and his plans to organise an international hotel management company, has hit Mr Guernier with a claim for $HK1 million in the High Court.

Mr Keung is alleging that Mr Guernier gave a $HK1-million cheque to Mr Keung, drawn on Standard Chartered Bank, Peking Road Branch, dated March 27, 1999, but, when the cheque was presented for payment, it was dishonoured.

Mr Keung wants his money back; and, he has sicked his lawyers on Mr Guernier's case.

Mr Guernier is not a virgin to the High Court, and TARGET readers will recall that, following his departure as General Manager of the former Ramada Renaissance Hotel in Tsimshatsui, he started up Byron International Hotels Ltd with a couple of his (obviously, former) buddies, of which Mr Keung was, in 1995, the Number One Buddy ...
